

Vital Thanks

SPECIAL EDITION

VOL 12 • ISSUE 5

Eggstraordinary times, extraordinary people

Help us thank our farmers and crew!

In just one week this spring, more than 16 million pasture-raised eggs journeyed from family farms to grocery stores across the country. That's more than we even thought possible, and it's all thanks to Vital Farms farmers and crew.

These essential workers are putting health, safety and animal welfare first, with not a ruffled feather in sight. Our farmers continue to give our hens the freedom to forage, even while their own families stay in place. Our Egg Central Station is open around the clock for the first time in our history. Our crew members are working harder and longer than ever, and our front office has even scrambled to help - filling in on the lines to keep the eggs coming.

We can't thank all the frontline workers in every industry enough - so we hope you can help us reach a special few! Flip this over to personalize a thank you message, then drop it in the mail to:

We'll be sure to share it with the team. But first - an eggstra thanks to you from Vital Farms for making good work so very rewarding. ❤
